

Leaving Your Legacy

Gifts of Other Assets

You may gift other assets to Shalom Counselling Centre. These may include precious stones and metals, gems, works of art, jewellery, equipment, or other tangibles provided they are subject to an appropriate due diligence review and can be readily and immediately used by Shalom, or sold.

Any acceptable immediate gift shall be liquidated as soon after receipt as is reasonable and practical. Unless otherwise required by the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA), the value of charitable donation receipts shall be based on the value of the gift on the day of receipt, less the cost of required appraisals and estimated liquidation costs, regardless of when the gift may be later liquidated. Receipts shall be issued in accordance with CRA guidelines.

Benefits of Gifting Other Assets

- Flexibility of giving
- Allows for alternative gifting methods
- Enables you to maintain your cash flow for current or future financial needs
